The Euterpean Society's Concert.

The second concert of the Euterpean Society, advertised to be given at Library Hall, on Wednesday, May 11th, promises to be an affair of exceeding attraction. Several new members have recently been added to the orchestra, which has contributed much to its strength and effectiveness. In addition to the Danton Sextette, a Brooklyn Musical Club of much talent, the Society have secured the services of that peerless artist, Miss Maud Morgan, whose reputation as a performer upon the harp extends around the world. The exquisite music which Miss Morgan produces upon that instrument, has surprised and delighted thousands in every country, and the people of Bloomfield are to be congratulated upon having the opportunity of having this talented performer in their own power. The thanks of the community are certainly due to the Euterpean Society whose enterprise makes the privilege possible.

As announced elsewhere in THE CITIZEN, admission tickets may be procured at the drug-stores of Mr. J. P. Scherr, and Mr. Geo. M. Wood, or from members of the Society.

Equestrian Club.

The "Bloomfield Equestrian Club" has been formed with about 30 members. R. N. Dodd, on Glenwood avenue is the headquarters of the Club, the President of which is Mr. Frank S. Benson. Dr. J. F. Stubbart is Secretary and Treasurer. The business affairs are in the hands of an Executive Committee, organized as follows: Frank G. Tower, chairman; Geo. W. Cadmus, Wm. B. Dodd, F. S. Benson, and J. E. Stubbart. A captain and two aids are elected at each meet. The first meet took place on Thursday evening of last week. The ride was from the headquarters, Dodd's stables, through Glenwood avenue, Broad street, Park avenue, Bloomfield avenue, Ridgewood avenue, Washington avenue, Mountain Road and thence to Watchung station. The return was through Montclair and Bloomfield to the headquarters.

A Simple Wedding.

There is in our day but little left of the plain, unostentatious ways of our fathers; everything, be it Church or State, must be done up with due pomp and circumstance required by the rules of etiquette of our times. Occasionally, however, things occur which involuntarily remind one of the Puritan simplicity you read about, and in their contrast to now established codes are, a refreshing sight to behold. At the close of the service in the German Church last Sunday evening Rev. Mr. Enslin announced that a young couple were awaiting the rite of Christian betrothal and invited all who considered it a subject of prayer and not of curiosity to witness the marriage-ceremony. Of course the whole congregation stayed, whereupon the bride, groom and witnesses, who all had attended service, stepped forward and the nuptial knot was tied according to Christian ordinance. After the ceremony the couple walked quietly, as they had come, homeward. A most sensible way of celebrating a wedding. May many young couples go and do likewise.

Bloomfield Wheelmen Challenged.

The following has been received for publication at this office:
To the Wheelmen of Bloomfield:
I challenge any resident wheelman of Bloomfield to a race of from 10 miles to 24 hours, in any rink or on any bicycle track or road in N. J. I will use either a 55 lb. Columbia light roadster or a Star special. Anyone that accepts address, WM. VAN WAGEN, Burlington, N. J.

Montclair.

The Montclair Township Committee held its regular meeting Tuesday evening with all the members present. A communication from residents in the southern end of the town asking that water should be introduced in other streets not named by the W. T. Company, was received and the clerk was ordered to notify Abner Bartlett, Jr., to procure a list of those wanting water and who would take it for not less than one year. The clerk was ordered to notify the Chosen Freeholders of Montclair Township to place a culvert on Lux street. A petition from storekeepers near the depot asking for a flag sidewalk, was received and referred to the Sidewalk Committee. Mr. Owen stated that for the coming three months, while the water mains were being laid, three special police would have to be placed on duty all day long to keep quietness and order in the town. It is thought that officers James Kane, Thomas Wiggins and George Buntin will be detained for this work.

Orange.

At a meeting of the New Jersey Floricultural Society, Monday evening, reports of the committees having charge of the arrangements for the Spring exhibition, which will be held next week, were received, and were very satisfactory. The Harrison street rink has been rented, and the exhibition will be opened at 10 o'clock next Tuesday afternoon. It will be continued throughout Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons and evenings. Markwith's band has been engaged to give a concert each evening. A large number of entries have been already received, and the exhibition promises to be a very fine one. The display of orchids will probably be the most attractive feature.

Four of the new cars of the Orange Cross-town Horse Railroad have arrived. The track is now entirely completed excepting the two railroad crossings and the Main street culverts, and, if no serious obstacles arise this, road will be in operation in a week or ten days. The electric car which is to be run on the experimental electrical road on Scotland street has arrived, and is being successfully operated.

An unfortunate accident occurred at the Y. M. C. A. Gymnasium Monday evening. A young man named Fritz Vassler was practicing turning backward somersaults when his feet slipped and he landed on the back of his neck. He was unable to rise up and suffered greatly. He was removed to his home and physicians were called, who found that his back was seriously injured and it is feared that it is broken.

Belleville.

The Rev. Wm. M. Sandford, a local preacher living in Belleville, was eighty-nine years old on Sabbath, April 3. He assisted the pastor, the Rev. J. C. Mayham, in the sacrament of the Lord's Supper that day, and at the pastor's request, made a brief address. Our veteran friend was present at a meeting held on the foundation of the first Methodist church built in Newark-Halsey street. For many years he preached on circuits with the travelling preachers. He was so engaged when the late Bishop James taught school in Belleville, and was a member of the Quarterly Conference which licensed the Bishop to preach, and which recommended him to the Annual Conference as a suitable preacher to be received on trial.

BLOOMFIELD BRIEF LOCALS.

The new Glen Ridge depot and Post Office has been open to the public, though not fully completed. It is unique in construction and will prove to be very convenient.

Misses M. E. and E. C. Rayner have removed to No. 11 Brick Row, Lake St., where they will carry on their millinery and dressmaking business.

On Wednesday evening the Park M. E. church tendered their new pastor, the Rev. J. A. Munroe, a reception at the church lecture-room.

Mr. Henry Meuser has been re-elected President of the Young Peoples Union of the German church.

Ground has been broken for the new building of Phoenix Hose Company, on Bloomfield avenue. It will be a two-story frame structure with an attractive front, 20x50 ft. The building Committee are Chas. M. Lockwood, W. A. Ackers, W. B. Corby and John Caubrook. Theo. Cadmus has the contract.

The regular monthly meeting of the Essex County Building and Loan Association will be held next Tuesday evening at Unanget's Hall. A new series of stock will then be opened. The Secretary and Treasurer will be at the Hall shortly after 7 P. M. to accommodate new members.

The first monthly entertainment of the Y. M. C. A. will be held next Wednesday evening in Dodd's Hall, beginning at 8 o'clock sharp. The committee in charge of the entertainment have prepared a programme which is being printed black on white by THE CITIZEN, and will beyond a doubt please everybody. As no charge of admission is made, it is feared that even Dodd's spacious hall will not contain the multitude of the Y. M. C. A. members and their friends.

A new German Benevolent Organization has recently been formed in our town under the name of "Bloomfield Penny Krauken Unterstutzungs Verein." The members are assessed each a cent a day in case of sickness of any of their number. The money thus collected is paid over to the sick party. The officers of the Society—which we hope will not lack penny-wisdom and pound-success—are: Wm. J. Raab, President; Joseph Schaub, Vice-President; Wm. Guterbock, Secretary; Rud. Betzsch, Treasurer.

Wm. D. Carter, Treasurer of the Newark Savings Institution, desires to have THE CITIZEN call attention to the fact that there is in the bank an unclaimed deposit of quite an amount, to the credit of Anna Roth, widow of Andrew, who in 1874 lived in Bloomfield. She is probably now dead and as the books were left there for safe keeping none of her heirs may know about it.

Dr. Daniel V. Thomas, one of Bloomfield's oldest inhabitants, died at his home on Bay avenue on Monday last. He had been in feeble health for a long time, and had reached the age of 87 years. Dr. Thomas removed to Bloomfield from Oswego, New York, about twenty years ago. He was connected with the Baptist church, but benevolent and liberal in his views toward all Christian denominations. His funeral took place at his son's residence on Bay avenue, on Wednesday afternoon, and was largely attended. Rev. Mr. Simmons officiating.

The Town Committee met on Wednesday. The gas contract was signed for another year, the fire committee authorized to purchase additional hose and a new bell for Active Hose House. Mr. Draper, of Orange was appointed Surveyor of Road Construction, and it was resolved to change the name of the "Old Road to Montclair" to Glen Ridge avenue, from Bloomfield avenue to the township line. The various committees were authorized to advertise for the various public improvements for which money was appropriated at the Spring election.

Extensive alterations are being made at the Soho Chemical Works property. The old pond is being dredged and the neighborhood is full of rumors of possibilities and probabilities as to the growth of the Soho settlement. The influx of the new spinners ought certainly to bring with it some elements of thrift. Yet it would not, we hold, be wise for property owners around there to double the price of their land in anticipation of what there might be. Never count your chickens before you have secured the hen to hatch the eggs, for that would be utterly previous.

Mr. George Peterson, a well known gentleman of Watessing, has augmented the number of artisans who give color to our landscape by painting house and hearth in any tint desired for a fair equivalent.

TO THE BLOOMFIELD CITIZEN:

In the article on "An Old Campaign Recalled" in the CITIZEN of last week, a typographical error gives a very different meaning from that intended. For "the universal honor of a promotion, etc.," should read "universal honor."

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

The regular meeting of the Association was held at the Rooms on Friday evening, April 15th, at 8 o'clock.

The meeting at the Rooms on Saturday evening will probably be led by a gentleman connected with the Y. M. C. A. of Wilkesbarre, Pa.

Mr. G. Theron Moore has placed in the Rooms, for the use of soldiers and others two very fine and large works containing the "Official Record of Officers and Men of New Jersey in the Civil War." These books will be found of great service and may be consulted at any time by those wishing so to do.

Advertisement Notes.

An extensive auction sale is advertised in our columns for Tuesday, April 19th, in East Orange.

Note Colyer & Co.'s new advertisement. Their clothing is first-class.
